Bassetlaw Integrated Care Partnership (ICP) – Joint Meeting with the Public and Third Sector Partnership: Board Summary, August 2019

This was the first joint meeting with the Public and Third Sector Partnership. As such, the ICP Board were joined by partners from the police, RNN college group and the fire and rescue service.

Presentations were received from Fran Walker on the report from the Ambitions Event in June, promoting careers for Bassetlaw school pupils. Neil Taylor, Chief Executive of Bassetlaw District Council, presented and invited views on the draft four-year Council Plan.

The Board were presented with the Workforce Strategy, and the Digital and IT Strategy, both of which were approved and are now available on the www.betterinbassetlaw.co.uk website. Thanks were offered to the chairs of each workstream – Karen Barnard from Doncaster and Bassetlaw Teaching Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust, and Steve Jennings-Hough from Nottinghamshire County Council.

A report on the 'Miles in May 2019' initiative was received.

Stephen Brown and Beverley Alderton-Sambrook from Bassetlaw District Council provided a presentation to the Boards on the significant levels of housing development in the district, and on section 106 considerations. All partners agreed that a group to identify the opportunities presented by growth for public service integration, and understand the potential impact on local services, should meet and report back.
